BOURJOIS' "JAVA" FACE POWDER

Dainty women are first attracted to BOURJOIS' "JAVA" FACE POWDER by its incomparable flower-breath delicacy of fragrance. More important than its fragrance is the complexion improvement it helps to effect—an effect that is further enhanced by the clinging adherence of its velvety texture. No more convincing pledge of purity could be offered than the fifty-nine years of continuous feminine demand enjoyed by BOURJOIS' "JAVA" FACE POWDER. There's a tint of "Java" FACE POWDER to blend becomingly with the individual complexion—white, cream, pink, rose and brunette.
